NEBRASKA TO CELEBRATE 94 CHAMPS

Huskers vs Miami, the highest of highs and the lowest of lows. That is the emotion I know from this series. I am sure all Husker fans feel the same way. From the 2 point failure to the win that gave Big Red and Tom Osborne his first National Title. A roller coaster of emotions each game. This game is being called the game of 5's. (See the graphic to the right) Hopefully Saturday, Nebraska can put one on an old adversary and show the pollsters that everything in the BIG TEN is not dead, yet. Nebraska lays 55 on someone and they drop a spot in the polls. That is how bad things are for the BIG 10.

I hear that the Huskers will honor the 94 Champs and it also looks like the Bone Yard is calling for a Blackout at Memorial Stadium this Saturday. Lets Go BIG RED make the magic happen. Oh by the way these kids playing, some were not even born in 1994. Man, I am getting old.

#22 Nebraska Cornhuskers (3-0)

VS

Miami Hurricanes (2-1)

Well, as I alluded to earlier, this is a series that is in a deadlock of 5's. Each school is boasting 5 National Titles and each has 5 wins in the series, many of the old timers will conjure visions of what used to be and what this matchup usually meant. Two big bad bullies fighting it out to be king.

However that is hardly the case today. Nebraska outplays a team by 36 points and drops in the rankings and Miami is not even ranked as they were manhandled by Louisville. Some are probably thinking this is a marquee matchup for the Big 10. Hardly, perhaps if Miami were 3-0 and had put big beat-downs on all of their opponents this year. But the truth is, this game is a game Nebraska should win.

It will not help NU in the polls unless they win by 30 or more. However a 3-7 point win could mean another drop. Hell, Ohio State and Michigan State could both lose and still be ranked higher than the Huskers. Nebraska has a long road ahead. This weekend may let us know how long. For me there is no one I would rather see the Huskers beat than Miami. My dislike for them is only preceded by my dislike for Urban Meyer and Steve Spurrier.

If I sound a little bitter this week you are right, perhaps it is the fact I will not be able to be at the game this week due to a "wedding". Where I grew up people did not get married on Husker game days unless it was at the stadium during halftime. So FVH members do me a favor, I will be on the lake shore in Oshkosh. I want to hear one good GO BIG RED from Holidays. My pick, Huskers 30 - Miami 24.

Ameer now #5 All Time

31 yds from #4 and 61 from Crouch.
 A big night could put Ameer at #3.

Gregory back on "D"

Sure was nice to see this guy back causing problems for the oppositions offense. Hopefully he has his wind back as the Huskers will need him to create pressure vs the Canes.

NEBRASKA'S ALL-TIME RUSHING LEADERS

1. Mike Rozier, 4,780 yards
2. Ahman Green, 3,880 yards
3. Eric Crouch, 3,434 yards
4. Roy Helu, 3,404 yards
5. Ameer Abdullah, 3,373 yards

FRESNO STATE WATCH PARTY RECAP

29 VIEWERS WERE AT THE FRESNO STATE GAME

WE HAD 9 VISITORS, 4 FROM GENEVA 2 FROM HASTINGS

1 from Lincoln, 1 from Chicago and 1 from Puerto Rico. He came about 3,000 miles to see his brother Harold Boccheciamp and join us for the Husker Watch party.

John Steider a visitor from Geneva new about us and has visited before. So while at the Fox River Mall he spotted two husker fans in the mall. A couple from Hastings, and told them about the Watch party at Holidays, so they joined us.

BOB AND RYAN, WERE WINNERS IN THE FOOTBALL POOL. KATE MADE TWO HUSKER PILLOWS THAT LOOKED GREAT AND GAVE THEM AWAY A SPECIAL DRAWING.

THANKS!

FVH would like to thank Holidays for their generous donation towards our halftime giveaways. Jeff has donated gift cards to be given away each week to one Lucky Husker
